

Planning Events in Milton Keynes

Venues

Milton Keynes has a wide range of impressive event venues capable of hosting small, medium and large events for companies, professional associations, charities and brands looking to engage audiences face-to-face.

From city-centre and countryside hotels including Leonardo's, Hotel La Tour, Holiday Inn and Horwood House to high-profile attractions such as Bletchley Park and Silverstone, unusual venues including Stadium MK home of MK Dons FC, and the academic institution of Cranfield, Milton Keynes has a venue to suit all requirements and tailored to delivering the best possible event experience.

Evening Entertainment

Milton Keynes has a number of competitive entertainment venues which are perfect for hosting delegates and guests for a little informal (or formal!) competition. Lane7 in Midsummer Place along with Hollywood Bowl and Volcano Falls mini golf all offer options for groups and are easily accessible by foot within the city centre. MK Theatre is one of the busiest theatres outside of central London and provides a full calendar of shows during the year with many well-known performers taking to the stage. The city also boasts a large amount of well-known bars and restaurants which can be found on foot and are close to all the city centre hotels. With professional ice hockey and football teams and a multitude of local golf courses across the city, Milton Keynes provides a full range of cultural and sporting solutions for every event!

Support Services

Milton Keynes has a comprehensive selection of event planning and production companies who are able to assist in delivering high-quality events throughout the city. With audio-visual companies providing key equipment and technical advice in conjunction with our event venues, marquee-hire firms offering a selection of outdoor event spaces perfect for the summer, and taxi and coach companies able to coordinate delegate travel across the city, Milton Keynes has all the services you need to deliver impactful and engaging events to meet your objectives and budgets!

Destination Information

For all of your destination needs and enquiries in Milton Keynes, full information and support is available through Destination Milton Keynes. Our conferences and exhibitions pages provide details of all the key venues in the city alongside further information on travelling to the city and details for the Travel Trade.

Please visit Conferences & Exhibitions - Destination Milton Keynes for more information!

Andrew Kirby, General Manager, Destination Milton Keynes

andrew@destinationmiltonkeynes.co.uk